Circulation of the annual, bilingual periodical Antipodes, Vol.66. 2020, and results of annual, bilingual Literary Competition, 2020.

We are very proud to announce the circulation of the Greek-Australian Cultural League's annual, bilingual periodical Antipodes, Vol.66. 2020.

Despite all the restrictions, limitations and cancellations which Covid-19 imposed on our organisation and so many other cultural, literary and art-related associations, the GACL managed to produce the annual periodical Antipodes, a special edition, in full colour, celebrating the 10 years of our annual group art exhibition, Antipodean Palette and a tribute to well-known and acclaimed, poet and author, Vasso Kalamara.

This year's periodical has many new contributors and a variety of articles which give this volume significant importance to our Greek-Australian literature and art scene. This year's publication attracted an increased interest from contributors thus making it larger in size. It incorporates the annual bilingual Literary Competition results, as well as the works of the first-place recipients in this competition.

Due to the dedicated and committed Art team from the Administrative Committee we were able to undertake this year's art exhibition, Antipodean Palette, on-line, with 15 artists from Australia and also to create a virtual gallery with their works under the theme-In Isolation. We are fortunate to include their works in this year's publication and we thank them for their participation.

We are also planning to offer the periodical electronically (e-periodical) very soon.

Because of the restrictions imposed the periodical will not be launched in the usual physical manner which we had undertaken all these years and we therefore invite our members, friends and anyone else who is interested in receiving the periodical to communicate with us so that we can arrange how to procure it during this period of Covid-19 regulations. Please contact, Cathy Alexopoulos- cathyalex@hotmail.com, or 0428968715. Members who have paid their current membership fee will have the periodical posted to them.

We would like to thank every contributor and the generous sponsors towards this publication, as well everyone who assisted in its compilation, editorial and design.

The names of the award winners of the Literary Competition, 2020, are attached. We thank all the participants and offer our congratulations to the winners and wish everyone continued success in their future endeavours. We sincerely thank the three judges for their invaluable input in the materialisation of the results. We encourage all interested in participating next year to refer to our website-www.gacl.com.au, sometime in March, 2021.
