PERIODICAL «ANTIPODES» Volume 68, 2022

The 68th issue of the literary periodical Antipodes will be launched on Sunday 23rd October, 2022. This year the periodical is celebrating its 49th year of continuous circulation.

The issue will be devoted with a variety of articles and images commemorating the 100 years from the Asia Minor Catastrophe in 1922.

As usual, this issue will publish works submitted by our members or non-members such as poems, short stories, studies, essays, book reviews and other literary works, in Greek and English and the Visual Arts.

Works to be submitted for publication must be original works that have not been published or promoted in another publication and must be the final copy of the submission. Literary works should be no longer than the limits prescribed as follows: Poems: 100 verses (lines), short stories and essays; 2000 words, meditations: 800 words, studies: 2000 words, book reviews and other reviews (exhibitions, music, plays, films): 1000 words.

The deadline for submitting contributions is Friday 24th June, 2022. Works that exceed the specified size limits will be rejected, without involving the Editorial Committee.

Works Submitted must be sent electronically in Word document format, (attachment) to gacl.editor@gmail.com
