ANNOUNCEMENT BOOK AWARD 2022

The Greek-Australian Cultural League announces the Book Prize awards for books written by authors residing in Australia who have published and circulated their works written in Greek or English and also bilingual works.

The Book Prize shall cover publications in the years 2019, 2020 and 2021.

Only works submitted by their authors will be judged. Authors may use the application form by emailing the GACL at infogaclm@gmail.com or requesting that an application form be mailed to them. In their application form authors may list as many books they wish to be judged for this award, provided that these are not more than one book for each year of publication in each category. Authors are required to forward three (3) non-returnable copies of each work submitted for judging. In bilingual works, it is up to the authors to nominate the language of the publication they want the work to be judged.

Prizes will be awarded in each category and each language, subject to the submitted works the Judging Panel considers worthy of a Prize. The categories of publications for 2022 are: -

- (a) Poetry (b) Prose (c) History/Study

The Prize awarding ceremony will be held on Sunday 4th December 2022, 4:00 pm, immediately after the conclusion of the AGM of the League, at the second-floor functions room of the Panarcadian Association of Melbourne and Victoria "O Kolokotronis" building, 570 Victoria Street, North Melbourne.

The deadline for the submission of completed application forms and the copies of the books is Friday 15th July 2022.

For further information regarding the submission of applications and the handing in of the 3 copies of the books, please contact the co-ordinator of the Book Prize, John Georgiou, tel. 0466 99 22 70, email: i.georgiou@bigpond.com or the President, Cathy Alexopoulos, tel. 0428 968 715, email: infogaclm@gmail.com
